Pupil found dead in school toilet

Mohammad Asif

Students watch as the Class X pupil's body is taken away

Burdwan: A Class X student of Dadhia Gopaldas High School in East Burdwan was found dead in the school's toilet on Tuesday morning. The 15-year-old had a bullet injury on the right side of the head.

Police found a country-made revolver and some cartridges from the spot and sealed the toilet, which will undergo a forensic examination.

Headmaster Biswanath Ghosh said: "Before school started around 10.55am, teachers and students heard a gunshot. They rushed to the washroom and found the student in a pool of blood. Some Class X students said they had seen the student of their class, in uniform, run into the washroom." Hearing the news, many guardians and villagers gathered outside the school in Ahia village of Ketugram block. It was shut for the day.

Police reached the spot around 11.30am and questioned three students who first informed the headmaster about the incident. The body was taken to Ketugram police station and the boy's family from nearby Ratanpur village was informed.

SP Bhaskar Mukherjee said: "Assembly prayer had just ended when everyone in the school heard a shot. The 15-year-old's body was found inside the washroom, whose door was open. The bullet injury was in the right temporal region in between eye and ear. We found a country-made revolver near the body."

"The student's family did not lodge a complaint," he added. "We are investigating on the basis of information given by the school authorities. We are not in a position to say whether it is suicide or homicide. We will investigate all possible angles."

Contai probe goes to CID

Suman Mondal

Contai: The West Bengal CID on Tuesday took over investigation into last Thursday's shootout, bombing and escape from custody of undertrials just before their production in Contai court.

Two — Sheikh Munna and Surajit Burla — of the four undertrials who escaped are still at large while two others were re-arrested, with main accused Karna Bera surrendering yards outside the court.

Two CID officers reached Contai police station on Tuesday morning and started the investigation.

Won't go begging for seats in alliance, says Mayawati

Says Will Soon Get Power Master Key

Neha Lalchandani
@timesgroup.com

Mayawati

Lucknow: BSP chief Mayawati has said she "will not go begging to any party" for seats.

Days after she declared she would not partner with Congress in any of the upcoming assembly polls, Mayawati said her lone demand from any party who allied with hers, was that BSP be given a respectable number of seats, indicating this was the reason why talks with Congress failed.

Celebrating party founder Kanshi Ram's birth anniversary on Tuesday, Mayawati said she would soon acquire the "master key" to power, and would make it her mission to improve the lives of Dalits, backwards, STs, minorities and poor upper castes.

"I will walk the path shown by B R Ambedkar and Kanshi Ram. For this, neither will I break nor bend before any powerful force, but will face every problem and conspiracy and acquire the master key to power," she said.

With five assembly elections in the next two months and the Lok Sabha election of 2019 round the corner, Mayawati is being sought as a key ally by several parties, including UP's Samajwadi Party. But her decision to contest the MP and Rajasthan elections alone has left many wondering whether the proposed 'mahagatbandhan' will at all be a challenge to BJP.

Tej denies family feud, Tejashwi mum

A day after RJD chief Lalu Prasad's daughter and Rajya Sabha member Misa Bharti dropped hints about a rift between her two brothers, Tej Pratap Yadav on Tuesday denied any feud while his younger brother Tejashwi refrained from commenting.

"I'm not aware what Misa has said," Tejashwi said on Tuesday.

Addressing party workers at Maner on Monday, Misa had said they should remain united as "discord was everywhere... our family has also seen discord between my brothers".

She tried to downplay the issue later, tweeting within hours that she had been misquoted. TNN

NHRC caught in Darivit crossfire

Subhro Maitra

Malda: A three-member team from National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), sent to probe the deaths of two youths near Darivit High School on September 20, was caught in a political crossfire on Tuesday after alleged "non-cooperation" by the Bengal government.

The school stalemate showed no signs of improvement during the day. Defiant villagers didn't allow teachers to enter the premises more than a fortnight after the incident.

The NHRC team had reached Bagdogra on Monday with the aim of reaching Darivit village on Tuesday. But it had to stay put at the PWD guesthouse at Islampur for the whole of Tuesday because there was no one from the state government to take the team to the school and its neighbourhood.

SCHOOL DEATHS

NHRC team member Sreerupa Mitra Choudhury, who had lodged the complaint on September 27, said: "The state administration is not cooperating with the NHRC team. State officials are also intimidating villagers."

The allegation comes two days after BJP's Bengal president Dilip Ghosh complained against the administration, saying it had cancelled circuit house bookings for Union health minister J P Nadda in Islampur even after prior intimation of his itinerary.

North Dinajpur SP Sumit Kumar, who was the first to say police didn't open fire on the Darivit school crowd, said: "We had already informed NHRC that the matter is now pending with the West Bengal Human Rights Commission, which has already taken note of the incident."

The police officer cited Section 36(1) of Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993, that provides that NHRC "shall not inquire into any matter which is pending before a state commission or any other commission duly constituted under the law". The state had written to this effect to NHRC on October 6.

Mitra Choudhury, however, denied having received any such letter. "We didn't hear of any such enquiry by the West Bengal Human Rights Commission before we left Delhi," she said.

Islampur sub-divisional officer Manish Mishra refuted the charge. "We are cooperating with the NHRC team...They are waiting for the DIG, who will be reaching tomorrow," he said.

Deepika tormentor returns to BJP

Chandigarh: A little-known politician from Haryana, Suraj Pal Amu, who hit the headlines last year for announcing a Rs 10 crore bounty on the heads of actress Deepika Padukone and director Sanjay Leela Bhansali, is back in BJP. He will be the party's spokesperson ahead of the 2019 Lok Sabha elections.

Amu, who is also a leader of Rajput Karni Sena, had announced the bounty over allegations that film 'Padmavati' showed the Rajput queen in bad light. He had resigned after a row over the remark. TNN
